Iron And Steel

Demand Falls Off
No Special Change
Galvanised Wire

BY OUR FINANCIAL EDITOR

There has been no special change in the position of the iron and steel market, and supply and ..... are still unbalanced. The demand from the dealers has fallen off, no doubt, due to the high rate of native interest and also because of the approach of the close of the Chinese year. Moderate orders are nevertheless trickling in, but the disparity between American and English prices on the one hand, and the offers being made by dealers here for the present, on the other hand, does not give rise to much optimism. The intrinsic position of the local market is not likely to undergo any genuine change until after the Chinese New Year. The pendulum will certainly not swing the other way for another month, but in the meantime the position may be taken to be healthy. This is usually a slack period in the Shanghai iron and steel trade, the turnover of fresh business being extremely poor.

Some quantity of new galvanised wire has been done, but in the old material nothing is reported. The Germans have been active in putting mild steel bars on the local market at £9, but the Chinese dealers are not disposed to operate even at this level. It is probable that the high rate demanded by native banks for accommodation before the Chinese New Year has deterred the buyers from buying this.

BRITAIN'S OUTLOOK

Belgian prices are a little easier, but quotations of American and British manufacturers are still very steady. American reports indicate a fair turnover of metals. There is somewhat an adverse feeling in the United Kingdom created by the doubtful political outlook in that country This cannot be regarded as surprising, as the previous upward movement was based on abstract considerations and was, therefore, peculiarly vulnerable to any adverse news. The shadow of the probability of a Labor government in Great Britain has hovered over all markets in general. It has so far had a negligible effect on sentiment, British iron and steel business dispaying an expanding tendency all round.

The decline in the English price of two shillings in galvanised sheets appears to have had no effect on prices in Shanghai. Great difficulty seems to be experienced in securing old scrap materials from England and the Continent. The American sellers of second-hand plates and similar materials consider the Chinese firm offers as a rule too low to permit of sales. Formerly we could secure 500 tons of scrap materials at a time, but only small quantities are being offered at present. For bar ends the rate is £8.17.6 and galvanised wire shorts at £16 per ton for 8-16 guage. Belgium is offering section ends at about £8 per ton, but dealers are showing no disposition to buy. Plate cuttings are also entirely out of the question, for dealers are offering to pay £8 against the English quotation of £9.

A good deal of interest is displayed in old horse shoes, but supplies are difficult to procure. The same applies to old cast iron, which cannot be had from England, where there is a great shortage of scrap, as well as in America. The United States, more than any other country, uses her own scrap to a great extent.

WIRE NAIL PRICES

Prices for German and Belgian wire nails are still about 10 percent below those quoted by the American manufacturers. In the case of round and square reinforcing bars the Belgian price is below American to the extent of about 20 percent, and in galvanised sheets, the British quotations are approximately 15 to 20 percent below the American prices. This price advantage of other countries is militating against any large business being booked by American houses in China. Prices

LABOR JEERS AT PEERS IN SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

Whistle 'Red Flag' In Halls Of Parliament

MacDonald Speech Is Prudent, Says London Times

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 9.—In the House of Commons today immediately the Speaker, Mr. J. H. Whitley, took the Chair in readiness for the summons to the House of Lords to hear the Royal assent to the Speaker's election a Laborite back-bencher began to whistle the Red Flag, but ceased in response to sharp cries of "Order!"

The ceremony in the House of Lords was carried out in time-honored fashion. Mr. Jack Jones (Labor: Silvertown) was heard to mutter throughout. He subsequently tried in vain to raise a point of order in the House of Commons alleging that the Commons had been insulted. He vouchsafed no explanation, but it is understood that he was aggrieved because there was only a handful of Peers present at the ceremony.

Mr. Jack Jones, leaving the House, explained that he had made the protest because he was a constitutionalist while the Lords were not though they were always talking about the Constitution. He protested against a hundred Commoners being received in the House of Lords by only "five marionettes from the Italian opera," whereas it was the duty of the Lords to receive the Commons in decent numbers.

Mr. Jones's reference was to the five Commissioners in red ermine cloaks and black cocked-hats.

COUNTRY CLUB SOD TURNING TO BE ON SUNDAY

Ceremony At New Location On Great Western Road Extension

The first sod for the new 350,000 taels club house of the Columbia Country Club on Great Western Road Extension, just beyond Edinburgh Road, will be formally turned on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, according to announcement made by the Board last night.

Mr. W. A. Burns, the first president and one of the founders of the Columbia Country Club, will wield the spade marking the beginning of the construction work on the new premises, assisted by Mr. L. Everett, the present president.

After the ceremony an informal reception will be held at the present club to which members and their wives are invited.

Minister Lays Cornerstone Of The New American Club

Expressing the belief that the building would stand as a pledge and promise of the union and fellowship of the American community, Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, United States Minister to China, yesterday laid the cornerstone of the new American Club in Foochow Road yesterday noon.

The ceremony was attended by a throng of Club members and their friends who received Dr. Schurman's remarks with enthusiasm.

The visiting official was introduced by Mr. E. C. Stocker, vice-president of the Club. Mr. Stocker expressed regret at the absence of the president, Mr. J. Harold Dollar, but welcomed the gathering on Mr. Dollar's behalf.

MILESTONE OF PROGRESS

The laying of this cornerstone, he said, constituted a mark in the progress of the American community as well as in that of the Club. The Club was started in 1917 with premises at 33A Nanking Road and a membership of 100. By 1921 it had entirely outgrown its quarters and search was begun for a new site. After considerable difficulty the present one was secured and when the new structure was completed it would have all the conveniences and facilities of a modern club in any American or European center and would be able to accommodate a much larger membership than at present.

It was their good fortune to intercept Dr. Schurman while on his way back to Peking and get him to perform the ceremony of laying the cornerstone. It was his honor and pleasure on behalf of the Club to present Dr. Schurman with a silver trowel as a souvenir of the occasion and with which to perform the ceremony.

DR. SCHURMAN SPEAKS

After expressing his pleasure at being called upon to officiate on this occasion, Dr. Schurman referred to Mr. Stocker's remarks upon the growth of the Club. He too, he said, considered it symbolic of the expansion of Shanghai's American community. When he first came here 25 years ago, he said, the American colony was very small. He had seen it grow until today the number stood at something like 2,500. This expansion in Shanghai was paralleled in other cities in China, in Peking, Tientsin, Hankow and other places. In Peking only a few years ago there was an American community of about 200 people. Now there were 1,200, and this in spite of the fact that Peking was nothing like the commercial center Shanghai is today.

This expansion and growth, Dr. Schurman took as symbolic of the growth of the American community throughout the country. He took it as a promise and pledge of union and fellowship. In Shanghai this new Club would be a social center where the American spirit would be fostered and developed, where friendships would be made and

Ships At Woosung Are Property Of Russ State, Claim

(Rosta News Agency)

Peking Jan. 7.—The following is a transiation of a memorandum presented by the Soviet Mission to the Waichiaopu, under date of January 4, regarding the sale and purchase of arms from Russian ships, illegally brought away from Vladivostok at the time, and at present stationed at Woosung.

"The Extraordinary Plenipotentiary Mission of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in China is in receipt of the memorandum of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of December 22, 1923, No. 47, in which it is communicating that according to inquiries made by the Ministry, the fact is not confirmed of the selling of arms from the Russian ships stationed at Woosung, which has been criminally brought away from Vladivostok. The Ministry, further, deems it difficult to sattle the question of handing over the ships to their legal owner—the

FLAMES SWEEP CHAPEI BEGGAR SECTION AGAIN

Vast Area Of Matshed Homes Burned To Ground; Loss Of Life Feared

The beggar village in Chapei between North Szechuen and Dixwell Roads, the scene two years ago of a disastrous fire in which many lives were lost, was swept by flames again early this morning.

The north end of the "village" comprising hundreds of matshed houses and shops was burned to the ground and several foreign dwellings in the immediate vicinity were damaged.

The suddenness of the outbreak and the densely poulated character of the district gave rise to the belief that several lives must have been lost in the conflagration. Hundreds of Chinese beggars and coolies and their families were rendered homeless.

At 4 o'clock this morning the fire was still burning, and it was believed that it was under the control of firemen of the Chapei Brigade and the International Settlement who had responded in full force.

The Settlement Brigade was directed personally by Chief Officer Pett who was in the midst of the conflagration throughout and whose efforts undoubtedly prevented a sweep of the flames to the South end of the congested village through which fire ripped disastrously two years ago.

No estimate was possible regarding the loss of life or damage so late as 4 o'clock this morning.

SUN PAO-CHI APPROVED AS PREMIER BY LOWER HOUSE

Vote Taken At End Of Informal Meeting

SENATE TO VOTE

Present Cabinet Is Expected To Resign

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 9.—At the conclusion of an informal meeting this afternoon the House of Representatives held a formal meeting which passed the nomination of Mr. Sun Pao-chi as Premier.

Three hundred and five Members were present, of which number 283 voted, 250 in favor of Mr. Sun. Ten votes were irregular.

It was resolved to report to the President on the matter this evening. As the Seal of the House is still in the hands of Mr. Wu Ching-lien, it was resolved to use the Senate's seal.

The nomination must go to the Senate, which will probably vote on it on Friday.

It is expected that the present Acting Cabinet will resign en bloc tomorrow.

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Jan. 10.—Immediately following the passage yesterday of the bill calling for the formation of the Sun Pao-chi Cabinet, the Lower house dispatched its delegate to Tientsin to request Mr. Wu Ching-lien to deliver up the Seals of the house of representatives. In the meantime, it is expected that Mr. Sun Pao-chi will this afternoon call together all parties concerned at his residence and hold a meeting to discuss how to select his cabinet members. It is more than likely, however, that it will take at least

$4,000,000 IS PRICE PAID FOR DOLLAR SHIPS

Seven Shipping Board Vessels Originally Cost $30,000,000

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Washington, Jan. 10.—Congressmen today learned for the first time that the United States Shipping Board had sold seven President steamers to Captain Robert Dollar for $4,000,000. The seven ships originally cost $30,000,000.

The seven ships referred to in the United Press dispatch are the new liners recently purchased by the Robert Dollar Company for the round-the-world service which will be inaugurated in Shanghai with the arrival of the President Harrison, the first ship, toward the end of January. The price of $4,000,000 was announced in THE CHINA PRESS a few days after word of the purchase was published and has been in no sense a secret.

Dr. Sun Is Unlikely To Seize Customs Surplus, Is View In Canton Now

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton, Jan. 6.—The year 1924 opens in Canton without the excitement expected. For a time it was thought here that Dr. Sun Yat-sen would attempt at the beginning of the year to replace the present staff of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service in Canton with a new one designated by him as a reply to the refusal of Peking to allot to Canton the share of customs surplus from Kwangtung. The Commissioner of Customs in Canton, however, has been instructed by Peking to acknowledge no other authority than Peking relative to the Customs issue, thus ignoring the order of Dr. Sun to the Commissioner to retain the collection here in Canton instead of remitting it as usual to the Inspector-General.

As it is unlikely that Dr. Sun will carry out his threat to seize the Customs House, for the preservation of the integrity of which six foreign Powers have stationed gunboats in Canton Harbor, the American and other governments are gradually withdrawing their naval forces. The anti-foreign demonstration staged in Canton a fortnight ago to influence the Customs surplus issue is not being followed up as the merchants and the better element among the Cantonese do not believe that any unreasonable means should be employed for an end which does not appear important towards the re-unification of the Republic.

TAXES STILL HEAVIER

The Cantonese rose early on New Year's morning to find themselves heavier taxpayers. Among the long lists of war-taxes for the benefit of the military regime are included the following: a surtax of 25 percent on ricsha and motor-car service; $3.20 a day a table for playing "sparrow" games; a tax of 30 cents for distributing every 100 circulars on the streets, and a charge of 50 cents to two dollars for every gun-carrying permit, every person possessing arms of any description being compelled to take out a permit with penalty for infringement of this regulation of a heavy fine or imprisonment. Several other taxes are being enforced and collected by individual commanders or troop units.

New taxes proposed in Kwangtung include special licenses for the sale or manufacture of wood alcohol, matches, rubber soles, and other articles. Another item being mentioned is a special tax on the sale of sugar.

Magistrate Jue Chock-man of Heungshan and Commandant Chan Chak of the Kwangtung River Defence, both under the Canton military regime, had a clash over the collection of certain taxes the last fortnight, the fighting spreading from Chinshan to Shekki. The troops of these chiefs looted several towns and burned one to the ground. Dr. Sun, being a native of the Heungshan district himself, is investigating the matter. It is understood that the present conflict is the fourth one since the return of Dr. Sun to Canton last February, and in every case it has been one of Dr. Sun's followers trying to take advantage of another in Huengshan.

RICE PRICE HIGH

On account of the war the price of rice in Canton is at present exceedingly high. Paddy is being sold at $7 a picul and husked rice of the best quality at $11 and above.

The silk factories in Canton are suspending operation as a protest against double taxation, throwing more than 10,000 operators out of work. The factories were ordered to pay their likins in advance some months ago when the Government was in need of cash upon an understanding that subsequent pay-

Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, American Minister to China, and Consul-General Edwin S. Cunningham left for Hangchow to pay an official visit of General Lu Yung-hsiang at 1.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, a few minutes after the American Minister had officiated at the laying of the cornerstone of the new American Club on Foochow Road.

Dr. Schurman and Mr. Cunningham left in a special car provided by General Ho Feng-lin, Defence Commissioner of Shanghai. They were escorted by Mr. S. K. Chen, Secretary to Commissioner Hsu Yuan. The Minister will pay a formal call on General Lu this morning and hold a conference with him, and this afternoon will have a conference with Civil Governor Chang Tsai-wang. Tonight he will be the guest of honor at a dinner given by the American community of Hangchow.

The Minister will return to Shanghai on the 10 o'clock train tonight and leaving an hour and a half later for Nanking where he will pay calls on General Chi Hsieh-yuen and the Civil Governor of Kiangsu.

Dr. Schurman will leave for Peking Sunday night.

I. B. C. PLANS PURCHASE OF ASIA BANKING CORPORATION

Amalgamation Plan Is Drafted In New York

NO DETAILS HERE

Agreement Is Reached For Taking Over All Assets

Cutting a crackling streak across the zenith of banking and commercial preoccupation here yesterday, came the announcement that the Asia Banking Corporation is about to be assimilated by the International Banking Corporation, giving up its four years of business progress in the Orient toward amalgamation with the pioneer American banking institution abroad.

Details of the transaction are not yet available here, but the Asia Banking Corporation officials yesterday issued the following statement with regard to the transfer:

"The Asia Banking Corporation has entered into an agreement for the sale of its assets and business to the International Banking Corporation, subject to approval of its stockholders, and a special meeting of such stockholders has been called to act upon such sale. A subsequent announcement will be made as to the date when its business will be transferred to the International Banking Corporation. It is felt that this action will be helpful to American banking interests in the Far East."

Details of the transaction have not yet been received here, according to statements by Mr. R. Buchan, of the Asia Bank, and Mr. N. S. Marshall, of the International, but additional information is expected shortly from the New York offices.

The Asia Banking Corporation has been one of the most popular institutions of its sort to be established in the Far East in recent years. It began its career by instituting American banking methods of the latest style and immediately acquired a large clientele.

NO RIPPLE SEEN

The Asia Banking Corporation opened their Far Eastern head offices in Shanghai on February 7, 1919. Mr. Ralph Dawson came to Shanghai and other points in the East—after extensive previous experience in these parts—to blaze the trail, and at the same time, just previous to the opening, Mr. William C. Lane, vice-president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, visited Shanghai in connection with the opening of the bank.

The Asia Banking Corporation had a fully paid up capital of G.$4,000,000 and was a depository of the United States Government. The head offices were at 35 Broadway, New York City. The general manager for the Orient was Mr. G. A. Tisdall, and Mr. R. Buchan has been manager for the East in Shanghai.

The Asia Bank has branches in Yokohama, Peking, Hongkong, Canton, Tientsin, Manila, Hankow and San Francisco.

The transfer here came not without intimation to the local offices and it is believed that the switch will be accomplished without any hitch, and with no more than a ripple on the local financial pool—due to the stability of the Asia Bank and the undoubted standing of the International.

PRESIDENT OF SEPARATISTS ASSASSINATED

Palatinate Leader Shot Down While Dining In Restaurant

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Jan. 10.—Herr Heintz, president of the separatist government in the Bavarian Palatinate, was assassinated yesterday while dining at a restaurant at Speyer.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 10.—An eye-witness of the assassination of Herr Heintz in the dining-hall of the chief hotel of Speyer in the presence of 30 guests says: "A number of shots suddenly rang out and three persons sitting at a table just opposite to me fell to the ground shot in the head. There was a cry of 'Stand against the wall and hands up.' The crowded room was consternated and a woman burst out crying as several more shots were fired. Three or four young men rushed from the room, threatening to shoot anyone leaving within a quarter of an hour and adding 'we are only attacking separatists'. The lights were extinguished. When they were turned on three men lay in pools of blood. Herr Heintz and another died in a few moments."

It is stated that only Herr Heintz belonged to the separatist government. The others sat at his table by chance. Troops and police soon arrived but up to the present no arrests have been made. Three other wounded persons were found outside the hotel.

Hsiao Yao-nan Is Given Governorship Under Provisions

Peking Hears London May Send Opium Probing Commission

(Dah Tong News Bureau)

Peking, January 10.—The condition under which Tuchun Hsiao Yao-nan of Hupeh will be given concurrently the governorship of his province is that he must exert his energy in assisting Kiangsi in the latter's expediton to Kwangtung. This includes the completion of an alliance between Hupeh and Kiangsi the despatch of the Hupeh brigade under Kow Yin-chi to the South and the exaction of the opium transit tax at Sinti for financing the Kwangtung drive.

The Cabinet has telegraphed to Chu Chao-hsin, Chinese Charge D'Affaires at London, that it had already instructed all the provinces to prohibit the opium traffic. Chao is instructed to inform the London Foreign office to this effect and to keep Peking informed if Great Britain proposes to send a commission to investigate the opium situation.

Huge Loan Basis Of Oil Concession

New York, Jan. 10.—The Moscow Correspondent of the New York Times says that the huge oil concession granted to the Sinclair Oil Company of New York was conditional on the company making the Soviet government a loan of $250,000,000. Hitherto the Sinclair Company has not complied with the Russian demands.

ATLANTIC COAST SWEPT BY GALE; MANY MISSING

Coast Of France Is Strewn With Wreckage Of Fishing Boats

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Jan. 9.—The Atlantic coast is in the grip of a gale accompanied by an exceptionally high tide practically amounting to a tidal wave. The coast from Brest to Biarritz is strewn with wreckage. Quays have been wrecked, houses flooded and fishing boats sunk. A number of fishermen are missing. A rush of water at La Rochelle was accompanied by a slight earthquake. The contents of houses were washed away and considerable damage was done.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 9.—A storm is raging on the Atlantic Coast. It is reported that a tidal wave at Penmarch and Biarritz crushed fishing boats. The south-west of France has been particularly affected. The Croix d'Hins station had to interrupt its wireless service yesterday evening.

Rains in the Paris district give rise to the apprehenson that the fall in the Seine will be slowed down.

Sun Pao-Chi Is O.K'D. As Premier

one week before the completion of the selection of the cabinet ministers under Mr. Sun Pao-chi. It is authoritatively reported that Dr. W. W. Yen will join the new cabinet in the capacity of vice-premier. Rumor has it on the other hand that as Dr. Wellington Koo will probably remain in his present office as minister for foreign affairs, Dr. Yen will be compelled to take up some other ministerial office. The present cabinet under the acting premiership of Mr. Kao Ling-wei is expected to tender its resignation en bloc this afternoon.

The reason why the Sun Pao-chi cabinet bill was suddenly approved by the House of Representatives yesterday is largely due to the betrayal of the Hsien Cheng Tung (Constitutional party), which has hitherto been considered as faithful supporters of the Government. The majority of the members of the constitutional party referred to above, feeling indignant at the arbitrariness on the part of a small number of its leaders and also greatly dissatisfied with the election law recently published by the Government, for they fear the law is detrimental to their interests, have come to terms with the faction belonging to Mr. Wu Ching-lien.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan 10.—The dispatch from the House of Representatives reached President Tsao Kun this morning whereupon the President sent the chief secretary of the Presidency to Mr. Sun Pao-chi to report the action of the house. There seems to be no doubt that Mr. Sun Pao-chi will accept the Premiership.

The members who yesterday thought that it would be necessary for the Senate to pass the nomination have since discovered that the Constitution does not require such procedure, so the President can issue a mandate accepting the resignation of the acting cabinet and appointing Mr. Sun Pao-chi as soon as he likes.

Several Cabinet lists and much other propaganda are circulating but it is officially stated that such lists are premature. Mr. Sun Pao-chi has not yet selected the ministers. The resignation of the acting cabinet ministers will probably reach President Tsao Kun this evening.

TIENTSIN HONORS DR. J. PETIT AT ROTARY MEETING

Colbert And Simmang Both Eulogise Late Secretary

Tientsin Rotary paid its glowing tribute to Dr. Julian Petit, late secretary of the Shanghai Rotary Club who passed away on New Year's Day, at the weekly meeting of the local club at the Astor yesterday. Two members from the North China organisation were present. Both Dr. J. W. Colbert, the Tientsin physician and Mr. Theodore E. Simmang, the 'silver-tongued' attorney from the Chihli city, eulogised the invaluable work performed by the late Dr. Petit in organising and spreading Rotary in their home town and extended their feelings of sympathy towards the local chapter in the loss it had sustained in the death of Dr. Petit.

Mr. A. R. Hager, who has just returned from a trip in South China and the Philippines, spoke on the possibility of establishing a Rotary Club in Hongkong which will form a connecting link between Manila and Shanghai. Mr. Hager also took occasion to thank President W. J. Hawking for entertaining the Roturians at his home last Sunday.

The Union Jack, a beautifully embroidered silk flag presented by the Rotary Club of Bristol, was raised at yesterday's meeting. After the ceremony Mr. H. Wiley led the assembly in giving three cheers for Bristol, which is the home city of President Hawkings.

Several reports from various committees concluded the program.

Polish Democrats Move On Dantzig

(Exclusive China Press)

Berlin, Jan. 9.—The Polish National Democratic Party has asked the government whether it is prepared to force Dantzig to afford to Poland unrestricted access to the sea, and to entrust the customs administration to Polish officials under the threat of otherwise boycotting Dantzig and routing Poland's whole export and import trade via other ports. The National Democrats are prepared to force an election unless the government takes a firm stand with regard to Dantzig.

See Caution In Leader's Speech

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 9.—With the exception of the Times and the Morning Post no morning papers publish editorial articles on Mr. Ramsay Macdonald's speech.

The Times says that the speech was marked by prudent caution and considerable ability. It notes with satisfaction that a Labor Government, which is based on a purely domestic program, will not merely ignore the world-wide interests of the British Empire.

In the opinion of the Morning Post the main point is that Mr. Macdonald has ignored the doctrines familiar to Socialist platforms. The paper says that the speech was radicalism of the familiar Celtic type. The Socialists are trying to gain office on false pretences in order to secure Liberal votes.

The Daily Telegraph and the Daily Mail in editorial articles give a warning to the Liberals of the gravity of their responsibility if they put a Socialist minority in office, the Daily Mail painting a gloomy picture of the consequences if the Socialist rank and file insist, as they have threatened, on pensions for all.

The Daily Express heads the speech "Macdonald's Soft Pedal" and says that this is apparently the new Socialist order of the day.

Impressions Of Paris Favorable

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Jan. 9.—Mr. Ramsay Macdonald's expression of friendship for France has created a favorable impression. The Temps says: "We shall do Mr. Macdonald's expressed intentions justice and hope that he will do justice to those of France."

The Journal des Debats says: "If Mr. Macdonald perseveres in the sentiments he has expressed, he will encounter great goodwill in France which is ready to discard mutual recriminations and to build up a sound policy."

The Liberte, the organ of the Extreme Right, thinks that Mr. Macdonald's idyllic language smacks of 1848. "The illusions of 1848 only benefitted Bismarck and Prussia. Beware of omens."

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 9.—The Liberte, commenting on Mr. Ramsay Macdonald's speech notes that "he made a point of saying at once that he repudiated the Bolshevik." "Korensky and Prince Lvoff also reproved it," adds the journal, "and yet it was they who opened the door to Lenin."

The Temps is pleased that "in the first rank of the nations with whom he wished to entertain the best relations Mr. Ramsay Macdonald placed France."

The Journal des Debats writes: "We are grateful for the friendly sentiments expressed by Mr. Ramsay Macdonald with regard to France. If at Downing Street he perseveres in these sentiments and wishes seriously to make them yield results, he will find great goodwill on our part."

GIVE JUDGMENT FOR DEFENDANT IN OCULIST SUIT

Judgment for the defendant with costs was given by Judge Peter Grain in the British Supreme Court yesterday when Dr. R. A. Thompson sued Mr. C. P. Rakusen of the Oculist's Institute Company for $129 for money alleged to be due on shares and services rendered.

Dr. Thompson alleged that he was formerly a partner of Mr. Rakusen in a business representing from 10,000 to 12,000 shares, and that he had paid Mr. Rakusen $50 for fifty shares but had never received the shares. In addition he asked for $79, claiming that he had guaranteed an oculist they hired to examine patients his fees, and that while the money had been paid to Mr. Rakusen the oculist had never received his money.

Judge Grain, in finding for the defendant, explained that whether or not the shares were worthless now, Dr. Thompson had purchased them and it was up to him to stand any loss that had resulted. The claim for $79, Judge Grain said, was not in any way due to Dr. Thompson as he had not rendered the service. If there was any claim it was by the oculist.

During the case Dr. Thompson asserted that he had broken with Mr. Rakusen because "he had found him the biggest thief and swindler in Shanghai." Mr. Reader Harris, for Mr. Rakusen, hotly protested against the expression and declared that Dr. Thompson's only purpose in bringing the suit was to publicly vilify Mr. Rakusen and try to ruin his business.

Mr. Harris suggested that Judge Grain warn the reporters present to keep the proceedings out of the newspapers, but Judge Grain refused on the ground that he had always left such matters to the discretion of the press and had always found that they used care and deliberation in their reports.

Sun Unlikely To Seize Customs, View In Canton

ments would be made only against receipts issued by the Bureau of Finance. Now the Department of War has taken over the collection of the silk likins and is ignoring the previous arrangements by which all silk dealers have paid much in advance.

In similar case to the silk dealers, the restaurants in Canton may have again to suspend business to avoid the annoyance caused by rival tax collectors, which is greatly detrimental to their business. The Civil Governor of Kwangtung has authorised one syndicate and General Chu Pei-teh of Kwangsi Army another to collect war-tax from the same source. The syndicate backed by the militarists is enforcing its collection by arresting the shop-keepers refusing payment. The restaurant-keepers are in favor of the syndicate authorised by the Civil Governor of Kwangtung, but nowadays in Canton armed troops are everything and civil authorities nothing.

TO REBUILD CITY

Internal war and destruction of cities in Kwangtung are in some respects a blessing in disguise. Shiuhing City, a scene of recent engagements, will be rebuilt in accordance with a modern plan, and the old wall will be demolished forthwith. Upon reconstruction, a municipal government will be installed to administer the affairs of the city. The leading citizens and gentry of Shiuhing are behind the scheme.

The province of Kwangtung is still divided up amongst the militarists. Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Hunanese mercenary forces are occupying the upper part of the North River territory with the Yunnanese in the lower section. Both have ordered the Kwangtung Yueh-Han Railroad to charge an extra passenger rate of 30 percent and to increase its freight tariff by 20 percent for their support. They thus realise from $2,000 to $3,000 daily exclusively for themselves, aside from whatever may be received directly from the war-chest of Dr. Sun Yat-sen. The West River above Samshui is within the sphere of influence of the Cantonese troops friendly to Dr. Sun. At Wuchow, Kwangsi, up the river, Dr. Tai En-tsai, a son-in-law of Dr. Sun, is presiding as Superintendent of Customs and Commissioner for Foreign Affairs.

MANAGE RAILROAD

On the West River below Samshui and along the Canton-Samshui Railroad Yunnanese troops are stationed, the troops having taken over the management of the line, the tariff of which is exorbitantly high. From Canton to Sam-ngan-kiu, a distance of but three miles, a third-class fare of 25 cents is being collected. In the Linchow circuit of Kwangtung the Northern and Kwangsi troops opposed to Dr. Sun are in control. The southwestern districts of Kwangtung and the island of Hainan on the southern coast are being controlled to a large extent by forces friendly to General Chen Chiung-ming. Eastern Kwangtung up to the present is still in the hands of General Chen Chiung-ming.

Mr. Yang Saae-arm, also known as Mr. Yang Wai-bun, former Chinese Consul at Honolulu and more recently Commissioner of Finance of Kwangtung, has been appointed by Dr. Sun Yat-sen as director to inspect the sale of opium. It is understood that the opium traffic will be given over to a syndicate as a monopoly with a stated revenue to be paid annually to the Government.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton, Jan. 5. (Delayed).—A movement is developing in favor of reorganisation of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's General Headquarters, Dr. Sun resuming the Presidency of the Government, styled "the Government of Consolidated China."

Dr. Sun has called for popular support for a Northern Expedition against Peking and also for reunification of Kwangtung finances.

Shensi provincials residing in Canton view unfavorably the sale of the Shansi and Shensi Joint Guild's property to enable the financing of Shan-Shen military expeditions.

The Customs Administration is carrying on without interference.

The National Kuomintang Convention will open at Canton on January 15.

American fellowships nourished. So he looked forward to the time when all through China Americans would regard themselves as one great community, welded together by common interests, and with the Legation at Peking as the center of the whole. He looked forward to that time and would do all in his power to bring it to pass.

AMERICAN POLICY

Dr. Schurman said that he had visited nearly all of the provinces in China and America's score of consulates, and made it his duty to keep in touch with Americans and try and find out what they wanted. Americans in China had, or ought to have, a common belief in the necessity for a common policy toward China and the Chinese Government. This policy should be developed by thought and discussion among the American communities and thus Americans in China could help their Government to form a wise policy, and when that policy was formed they should do all in their power to help in carrying it out.

Dr. Schurman then laid the silver trowel upon the cornerstone and concluded the ceremony by declaring the stone to have been "well and truly laid."

Following the laying of the cornerstone members of the Club and their friends repaired to the present clubrooms in Nanking Road.

POLICE SEARCH FOR ALLEGED RUSSIAN KILLER

Three Arrested Now Held For Trial In Chinese City

Chinese, International and French police are today searching for E. V. Schoolletoff, a Russian, who is alleged to have been the fourth man of the quartette who went to 34 North Honan Road Extension on last Monday night and, after a tussle, stabbed Eugeny Kulik to death.

The quartette, following an old custom, went on a drinking tour on last Monday night, which was the Russian Christmas Eve, and during their house-to-house calls came to the house occupied by the Russian woman and A. Rjabosof. When they attempted to enter the house Rjabosof stopped them and the Russian girl, seeing the fighting, came to his assistance. One of the men pulled a knife and stabbed her.

The house is only a short distance from the Chinese police station and several policemen, seeing the fighting but not knowing at that time that the woman had been killed, arrested three of the men, A. Zainoolin, P. Tarsoff and A. Slessaroff, for disturbing the peace. The fourth man, said to be Shoolletoff, escaped. The men arrested are now held at No. 1 police station in the Chinese City awaiting trial.

of German, Belgian and British iron and steel products are greatly below American, but the differential has been reduced recently, and is not so high in North China. Here and there some small orders have been placed for American steel and iron products, but the volume has been small and disappointing.

It is noticeable that some English makers of plates and angles are not inclined to make forward sales at present in view of the uncertainty as regards raw materials and the future of prices. A development of the new situation in the United Kingdom is the revival of steelmakers' association for the control of prices of sections and plates, etc. Makers of galvanised sheets in England are well filled with orders, and in view of the general firmness of steel prices in England, prices are not expected to be reduced to any appreciable extent. British works cannot accept orders at present owing to the well-filled state of their order books.

THE LEAD MARKETS

There is nothing reported as having been done in lead. There is an absence of inquiry for Burma lead and also for Consolidated lead. Prices of Straits tin have kept very firm lately despite the fact that sales to England and the United States have been on a comparatively generous scale. American demand is good and the same remark applies to consumption in the United Kingdom. World consumption, in fact, is in excess of production and but for the fact that there are excess stocks held up in the Straits Settlements which are now being liquidated, we should see prices much higher than they actually are.

Locally a fair business is being done in Hongkong tin for the Shaoshing district. The buying is likely to grow in dimensions soon after the Chinese New Year. Arrivals from Hongkong are fairly large at the moment.

At The Wintergarden

It's Jiggs' night to howl and all night long until three o'clock in the morning, the most celebrated Father in history will make the best of his opportunity at the Wintergarden, the management announces.

Starting the evening with a corned beef and cabbage dinner that Dinty Moore's place never equalled, the renowned Jiggs will contribute to the gaiety of nations throughout the night, at least until Maggie makes her appearance toward the fag end. Songs, dances and all the wierd whimsicalities that have made him famous during the time that he has been the ward, so to speak, of The China Press, will be on tap.

Miss Ninita Farias, late of the Spanish Royal Grand Opera at Madrid, will lend a touch of dignity to the proceedings.

Knute Hansen Going To Manila Next Week To Fight 212 Pounder

Local Battler Accepts Terms For Match With One Snyder; Monday's Card At Carlton To Have Double Barrelled Main Event

By Westa

Knute Hansen, the heavyweight battler who on last Monday toppled Silent Linnett at the New Carlton, will sail from Shanghai next Wednesday for Manila, where on the twentysixth of this month he will meet a heavyweight that Manager Tait of the Manila Stadium, has unearthed, This scrapper's name is Snyder, and while next to nothing is known of him here, even by Matty Smith, who thought he knew all the leather pushers in the world, he is believed to be the heavy who created something of a stir in Australia about a year ago. Matty is of the opinion that the Manila promoters, after learning Hansen's presence here, cabled Australia for Snyder.

Tait's cable to Matty, received yesterday, gave Snyder's weight 212. This is Knute's poundage almost to an ounce, so if the big Slow that Tait has dug up has speed or class the battle at the Manila Stadium on the twenty-sixth ought to be a classic.

The number of Shanghai fight fans, who learning last night that Knute had signed for a fight in Manila, sailed off cables to friends in the Philippine capital to bet everything they possessed on Hansen, including their shirts. After his appearance in the ring here on Monday there are many in Shanghai who are convinced that there is nobody in this part of the world that is in anything like his class.

In the meantime, boxing interest here reverts to the little fellows and welterweights. The card for next Monday, as announced yesterday, contains interesting possibilities, particularly the Kyko Favacho battle. This will be a battle for blood, as Favacho feels that he hasn't had a square deal in connection with that championship belt, and is determined to show his many admirers here that he is the boy to wear it.

In Kyko, as everybody knows, he will meet a whole flock of opposition. Kyko always is in good condition and always gives a good account of himself. Favacho is much the same style fighter as Toledo, long and rangy, while Kyko is thick and stocky. Both boys pack a terrific wallop and if either can land it will be Good Night for the other.

The Tigora-De Dios match, scheduled as the other half of the double barrelled main event, will be a fast, scrappy battle, full of action from start to finish. The "inside" hop on this fight is that these boys are going in there for a knockout. Both have been working hard to develop a punch, and to see them slamming the sand bag around is sufficient to convince anyone that they are making headway in that direction.

It looks like a card with great possibilities, notwithstanding the fact that all the boxers have appeared here previously.

It became known yesterday that efforts are under way to get Matty Smith and Garcia into a match, although at present Matty is fighting shy on the alleged ground that his work makes it impossible for him to get time for proper training. Matty is very busy these days, and appears to have little inclination for the glove game.

It is just possible, however, that the crafty ex-champion of the Australian overseas forces has made up his mind, from watching Garcia in action, that he does not care for the Filipino's game at present.

"Y" Day School Beats Ningpo Club "Five"

(China Press Correspondence)

Ningpo, Jan. 9.—A basketball match was played between the Day School five of the Shanghai Y. M. C. A. and the Ningpo north-gate club on the Ningpo Middle School's ground before a large crowd of spectators, yesterday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. The score was 17 to 11 in favor of the former.

Both sides were engaged in a hot fight. Owing to the lack of thorough practice, the Ningpo side seemed this time to be awkward with the ball in shooting and passing. They, never-the-less tried their best and did not give up till the last of the first half.

Chang, the right forward and Tang, the center did some excellant work for the Shanghai side, while the Ningpo side was well represented by Mr. S. C. Liu, who played as the center. At the end of the first period, three of the Ningpo team were badly injured and they were unable to play. Hence, the game was ended. Mr. S. M. Wong, science instructor of the Ningpo Middle School refereed the game.

GERMAN SEAMEN GET SUPPORT OF BRITISH UNIONS

Hamburg-American Liner Is Tied Up At Hull As Result Of Strike

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 9.—A strike of German seamen at Hull to enforce the Maritime Board rate of wages has extended to the London National Seamen's and Firemen's Union, which is supporting the men.

It is reported that a large ship is held up at the Victoria Docks owing to the German crew striking for British rates of pay.

Later.—The German steamer held up at Victoria Docks owing to the strike of the crew is the Hamburg-Amerika liner Frankenwald, which arrived on December 25. Officials of the new Stevedores' and Lightermen's Union visited the Frankenwald today to ascertain whether members of the union were handling cargo in order to call them out immediately. They retired when they found that the cargo-handlers belonged to the Transportworkers' Union.

German pickets at Hull awaited the arrival of the steamer Herbert Fischer from Germany and induced the crew of nineteen to join the strike.

As a result of negotiations between the Seamen's and Firemen's Union at Hull and the agents of the German steamer Neptune, the latter have agreed to pay the crew the British Maritime rate from January 8 and have accepted all the conditions of the Maritime Board.

Coolidge Cool On Bok Plan For Peace

(Reuter's American Service)

Washington, Jan. 9.—Attempts have been made to ascertain the views of the President on the Bok peace plan. The inquirers were referred to his message delivered at the opening of Congress when he said that the country definitely refused to ratify the Covenant of the League of Nations. The President added: "I am not proposing to change that policy, neither is the Senate. The incident is closed."

This apparently means that neither the President nor the Republican Members of the Senate will give encouragement to any plan that recognises on the part of the United States formal adhesion to the League of Nations.

Paris, Jan. 9.—The situation is still confused in Mexico. The newspapers announce that the United States Government will send warships into Mexican waters, especially to the neighborhood of the petroleum bearing districts which are said to be for the most part occupied by the rebels. The revolutionary General de la Huerta is levying export duties on petroleum. Certain American companies are protesting against the shutting down of their works and are demanding the intervention of the Washington Government. The sale of arms to Mexico has been forbidden by the Washington Government.

Belgian Deportees Present Their Case

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 9.—The case of the Belgian deportees against the German Reich is continuing before the Mixed Arbitration Tribunal in Paris. The Counsel for the German Government, Herr Hittler, in his pleading this morning admitted that the deportations constituted a violation of the rights of individuals and that the deportees were subjected to veritable forced labor, but endeavored to show that the Reparations Commission alone was competent to deal with "these large damages."

OPIUM CASES

Imprisonment and fines were distributed among seven proprietors of opium dens by the Mixed Court yesterday, sentences varying in accordance with the size and previous records of the establishments raided. The operator of a den at 825a Carter Road was ordered to jail for two months and a quantity of opium seized was confiscated. A man who ran a two-room establishment at 675 Sinza Road got a month's term, another, from 533 Medhurst Road, three weeks, one from 530 Medhurst Road two weeks, and three others were fined from $20 to $30 each.

"Milestones"

The phrase "Have you seen Milestones?" became an every-day question on the lips of all classes. It was in 1921 when touring companies visited every city in the United Kingdom, and those tours were a real triumph of Arnold Bennett and Edward Knoblock's play.

The first continuous run, was 609 performances, and it is because "Milestones" is an exquisitely artistic epitome of British temperament and customs, reviewing as it does the mid-Victorian days of the past and carrying us step by step to those times which just preceded the war. Its appeal was undoubtedly due to the manner in which the story, with its true atmosphere and its laughter and tears, played on the heart strings of all who saw it.

The photoplay acted by Isobel Elsom, Owen Nares, Winifred Dilevanti, Campbell Gullan, Hubert Harben, Mary Lincoln, Minna Grey, Ernest Carham and Esme Hubbard.

ANGLO-CHINESE DINNER GIVEN TO CHANG CHIEN

Sir John Jordan Speaks At Affair For Economic Mission

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 10.—Mr. Chu Chao-hsin, presiding at a dinner last night at the Chinese Legation in honor of the members of the Chinese Industrial Mission, expressed the hope that the visit of the Mission would advance Anglo-Chinese trade co-operation. He looked forward to seeing a similar mission from Britain visiting China.

The guests included representatives of the Department of Overseas Trade, the London Chamber of Commerce and of the leading industrial firms.

The High Commissioner expressed gratitude to Britain and hoped that there would be everlasting friendship between Britain and China.

Sir William Clark said that the Department of Overseas Trade was glad to co-operate with the Mission.

Sir John Jordan said that the history of Britain and China was one of the finest in the world for honesty. He had great hopes for China. It was necessary to stabilize the situation but the economic position would influence the political situation.

The chief item of the mission's program today was an important conference with Sir William Clark, the Comptroller-General of the Department of Overseas Trade. The morning was spent in inspecting road-making and factories. Afterwards there was a private lunch given by the British Industrial Federation.

Soviet Harsh In Arms Deal Note

Russian Volunteer Fleet—pending the Conference.

"The Extraordinary Plenipotentiary Mission must, first of all, much to its astonishment, take note that the reply of the Ministry of Foreign affairs does not at all correspond to the facts, which are common knowledge and which have even repeatedly appeared in the papers. There is no doubt whatsoever but that arms, as well as various other Russian state property, including even spare parts of machinery, have all the time been and are still being sold from the steamers. This fact of the sale of arms was also confirmed by the American Court at Shanghai, which found the American, Kearny, guilty of buying and selling arms from these ships, and on the 23rd of November, sentenced him to pay a fine.

FAVOR TZARISTS

"As for the reference on the part of the Ministry to the investigation carried on through the so-called Bureau of Russian Affairs, it cannot by any means be taken to cognisance. The Bureau consists wholly of officials of the former Tzarist Consulate, and it certainly must be considered as being in common with the band of these criminal persons who have seized the Russian ships.

"Such a method of "investigation" cannot be but characteristic of the actions of the Chinese authorities, whose sympathies are clearly with the White Guards and former Tzarist officials. If the Ministry is satisfied with the results of such an "investigation," it only goes to show that the Peking Government has not ceased patronising White Guard, who are hostile to the Soviet Government and Russia.

"The Ministry has not even taken the trouble to ascertain what quantity of arms and other property is now left on board the ships. Such an investigation would have shown immediately what quantity has been sold, for figures relating to the property which was on the ships at the time of their arrival at Woosung are known quite exactly. Thus, for instance, it is known that on the ships Mongugai, Zashitnik, Ohotsk, and Eldorado, there were 2653 rifles, 69 machine guns, and cannon, 162,000 various cartridges, and 4,700 hand grenades.

"Whereas it refuses to undertake really effective steps to prevent the plundering of Russian state property, the Ministry, by this very fact, takes upon itself political and material responsibility for the activities of the Whites. This responsibility becomes still greater by the unwillingness of the Ministry to hand the ships over to their lawful owner, the Russian Volunteer Fleet. The "difficulty," encountered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in settling immediately this question, which in fact admits of no doubt, only shows that the Peking Government does not wish to establish friendly relations with the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ASK REHEARING

"If one were to enter upon the path chosen by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and postpone every question pending the Conference (although the given case is absolutely indisputable, for the Ministry itself has no doubt but that the ships are Russian State property), then the Russian authorities, too, would have to postpone till the conference the solution of every question relating to Chinese property in the territories and waters of the Union. Inasmuch as there evidently exists the fact of a criminal seizure of Russian vessels, it is the duty of the Chinese authorities to assist in removing the criminals and handing over the ships to their legal owner—if, of course, the Peking Government really strives at maintaining friendly relations with the Soviet Government.

"The Extraordinary Plenipotentiary Mission expresses the hope that the ministry will carefully reconsider this matter, and will give immediate instructions, that the Russian ships be handed over to the representative of the Russian Volunteer Fleet at Shanghai, Mr. Elleder. Any further delay only entails a greater plundering of Russian property, as well as new losses—with the responsibility wherefor the Government of the Union will have to charge the Peking Government.

"The Extraordinary Plenipotentiary Mission expects an urgent answer."

PHILLIPPINES SOLONS DENY FUNDS TO WOOD

Appropriations For Governor Are Stricken From Annual Budget

(Exclusive China Press)

Manila, Jan. 9.—The annual appropriation bill which will come up for discussion in the Philippines legislature tomorrow will probably be passed by both houses as submitted by Governor General Leonard Wood excepting the sums asked for expenditures in the governor-general's office, according to legislative leaders.

The bill, as returned to the senate committee on appropriations, chminates a sum of $5,500 asked by the governor-general as compensatory allowances for officers of the United States government who are now detailed on the governor-generals staff.

The salary of the governor-general's secretary is reduced from $5,750 per annum to $3,750. The bill would further prohibit the governor-general from increasing or providing salaries for members of his staff out of his discretionary fund of $15,000.

Expenditures for the operation of the governor-general's private yacht, the Apo, are limited to $16,000 a year.

It is believed that the bill, if it is passed as the senate committee recommends, will be vetoed by the governor-general, but sufficient votes are claimed by the Coalitionists to pass the measure over the governor-general's veto, thereby carrying the entire matter to President Coolidge.

The total amount of the appropriations bill is approximately $24,000,000.

Seine Level Drops; Paris Still Anxious

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Jan. 9.—Although the Seine is falling slowly, the outlook is not reassuring for damper weather has returned. Meanwhile the situation in Paris and the suburbs is much the same. The maximum height of the flood has now reached Rouen, where the quays are flooded.

A meeting of Deputies representing the Departments of the Seine, Seine-et-Cise and Seine-et-Marne have decided to introduce a bill opening a credit of 30,000 francs for the sufferers from the floods and to create a permanent group of Deputies of the three Departments to defend Paris against recurrence of the disaster.

Hsiao Yao-nan To Report To Peking

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 10.—Marshal Hsiao Yao-nan, Inspecting General of Hunan and Hupeh, is expected to reach Peking in a few days in order to have an audience with the President, when opportunity will be taken to discuss the situation in Hunan.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 10.—According to an unconfirmed report Marshal Wu Pei-fu has suggested that General Ma Chi be appointed Tuli of Hunan, should General Chao Heng-ti persist in his refusal to cancel the autonomy of the province.

(Independent News Service)

Changsha, Jan. 4.—The last bunch of revolutionary Kuomingtang troops of Hunan under General Tsai Chu-yu, who rebelled against Governor Chao Heng-ti in company with Tan Yen-kai, are officially reported to have been ousted from Hungkiang in the west of Hunan. General Yeh Kai-shing is the man who brought military pressure to bear upon the uncompromising Kuomingtang leader, who evacuated Hungkiang with a handful of body-guards.

The scare of war in western Hunan may be said to have come to a temporary cessation with the withdrawal of Tsai. His troops have either been disarmed or surrendered to Governor Chao's side, and all around places like Supu and Chenki the Kuomingtang rebellious move is becoming a terror of the past.

Prince Of Wales On Visit To Paris

MORAL ORDER

IN THE MORAL ORDER there are all kinds of people. Therefore, because an individual optician happens to be incorrect, it is not to be thought that all the other members of his society or profession would observe the same kind of conduct.

THE OPTOMETRISTS, OCULISTS and Opticians connected with the Oculists' Institute are far above the average, and nowhere in the World is it possible to obtain any more honest, paintaking, conscientious and expert advice and service than here.

NOTE. The moral responsibility and ability of every member of this organisation has been thoroughly tried. When there are any better professional men to be obtained —we will have them.

Freight Market

In their report on the freight market, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

There was no issue of this Freight and Coal market report a fortnight ago owing to the incident of the Christmas holidays.

Since writing a month ago the situation in the Export from China to Europe and America has not changed to any extent and the market continues dull and uninteresting in all directions.

To United States Via Pacific

As the tea and silk seasons are now over and the walnut season is drawing to a close there is very little cargo moving in this direction outside of a little cotton going via Panama.

Coastwise

There is little change to report here since writing a month ago except that support for liners on the regular routes is being well maintained. The Saigon market is showing a little more activity of late and several fixtures to Hongkong and Canton have been made at quotations but the political situation in Canton is still so uncertain that it makes forward business very difficult.

Coal Market

In their report on the coal market, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

Japan Coal: Since last writing a month ago most of the annual contracts for 1924 have been completed and there has been very little doing since, in fact, the market is likely to remain quiet until after the China New Year holidays which take place early in February.

Fusnun Coal: Nothing of importance to report.

Fuchung Anthracite: Brisk domestic demand, otherwise no change.

Kaiping Coal: The demand and subsequently the price of the better grades remain quite firm, although some reduction is noticeable for the lower grades of Slack Coal. There is a small take off in deliveries at the moment owing to the approach of China New Year but fairly large contracts are being entered into in anticipation of good sales during the Spring months.

MISSIONARIES WARNED TO SEEK SAFETY

Tsaoyang District Is Swept By Bandit Horde

(Independent News Service)

Hsuchow, Honan, Jan. 4.—Following the raid of Tsaoyang by the robber hordes under Lao Yang-jen there has been a deluge of telegrams at this place warning of impending danger. A letter has also been received from the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs at Kaifeng urging all the missionaries within the threatened area to seek a place of safety. The Commissioner, however, neglected to state just where in China at the present time such places of safety exist. All things considered perhaps Hsuchow is about as safe as any other for the time being.

This at any rate is the concensus of opinion among the missionaries of the Augustana Synod Mission now assembled in annual conference at this place.

From delegates arriving from the Juchow district the information is gleaned that a troop of 10,000 men were seen to be on their way southward on January 1, for the ostensible purpose of placing an effectual check to the further advance of the terrible "foreigner" and his host of outlaws. These same delegates further reported that there has recently been a change of city magistrates at Juchow, the new man assuming office during the Christmas holidays. The former mandarin, Mr. Dai, wishing to exhibit his good graces towards the missions, donated ten dan (about 80 bushels) of grain to be divided equally between the Catholic and Protestant missions of Juchow.

From the delegates arriving from Loyang we glean the information that the seat of government of the Honan province is in the act of being transferred from Kaifeng to that place and that Mr. Li Dzi Chen has been appointed to the post of civil governor. Mr. Li has been occupying the position of Chief of Staff in General Wu Pei-fu's army and is his right hand man. Elaborate installation ceremonies were carried out recently in the prefecture yamen where the government is from henceforth to be housed. It is understood that the military governor, Chang Fu-lai, remains at Kaifeng.

Soldiers Must Pay To Ride On Trains Now

(Independent News Service)

Hankow, Jan. 5.—The restrictions placed on militarists for their travel by railway are now in full force. An aid-de-camp named Pang has been detained by the headquarters of General Wu Pei-fu at Hankow for having sent newly recruited troops by railway without first obtaining permit from General Wu. He is now awaiting trial, and is expected to be severely dealt with.

General Chin Yun-ao has wired to the Hankow Station of the Peking-Hankow Railway stating that the two men who have been found to be travelling without tickets under the disguise of commissariats have been tried and shot to death. Proclamations have been posted along the railway warning officers and soldiers to buy tickets if they wish to travel by railway.

America And The Recognition Of Russia

REUTERS Service for January 7 carried a very brief reference to the debate in the United States Senate between Senators Borah and Lodge on the subject of Russian recognition. From the meager reference to the debate given in the news despatch the Administration seems to be divided on this subject, the extreme position opposing recognition being taken by Lodge, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations and Secretary of State Hughes while the more moderate attitude of leaning toward recognition apparently is being taken by the President who evidently has on his side the "progressive bloc" in the Senate. In the debate in the Senate on January 7 Senator Lodge defended the policy of non-recognition on account of the "interlocking directorates" between the Soviet Government and the Communist Party while Senator Borah pleaded for recognition urging that the time had come to consider whether Russia had not met the conditions laid down in President Coolidge's annual address to Congress. A few days previous to this Secretary Hughes gave out an interview opposing any form of recognition on the ground that the Soviet authorities of Russia were still working to foment revolutionary disturbances in the United States and stated that the Administration had copies of intercepted correspondence proving his contention. In view of the importance of President Coolidge's attitude on this subject of Russian recognition we give here his complete statement on the subject which was contained in the annual address to Congress on December 6:

"Our diplomatic relations, lately so largely interrupted, are now being resumed, but Russia presents notable difficulties. We have every desire to see that great people, who are our traditional friends, restored to their position among the nations of the earth. We have relieved their pitiable destitution with an enormous charity. Our Government offers no objection to the carrying on of commerce by our citizens with the people of Russia. Our Government does not propose, however, to enter into relations with another regime which refuses to recognise the sanctity of international obligations. I do not propose to barter away for the privilege of trade any of the cherished rights of humanity. I do not propose to make merchandise of any American principles. These rights and principles must go wherever the sanctions of our Government go.

"But while the favor of America is not for sale, I am willing to make very large concessions for the purpose of rescuing the people of Russia. Already encouraging evidences of returning to the ancient ways of society can be detected. But more are needed. Whenever there appears any disposition to compensate our citizens who were despoiled and to recognise that debt contracted with our Government, not by the Czar, but by the newly formed republic of Russia; whenever the active spirit of enmity to our institutions is abated; whenever there appears works meet for repentence; our country ought to be the first to go to the economic and moral rescue of Russia. We have every desire to help and no desire to injure. We hope the time is near at hand when we can act."

Breaking The Peking Deadlock

THE news from Peking to the effect that there is possibility of President Tsao Kun asking Dr. W. W. Yen to form a new cabinet is interesting because it indicates a move in the direction of breaking the deadlock which has existed between the President and Parliament since the election of the president a few months ago. The same despatch stated that Yen has the support of General Wu Pei-fu and if this is true it is also encouraging because it indicated that the chief military supporter of the Peking Government is getting tired alike of the obstructive tactics of parliament and the weak and vacillating policy of the President. And well may they move to break the deadlock for unless it is broken there is nothing left for Tsao Kun to do but get out. The Peking situation is most interesting for the reason that it is a fine illustration of the ultimate results of rotten politics. Tsao Kun became president by wholesale bribery of the parliament and the man who did the work was Wu Ching-ling, speaker of the House. After Tsao had moved in the presidential palace, Speaker Wu demanded payment for his services, the payment being the Premiership. But Tsao Kun and his military and political supporters thought otherwise, for with Speaker Wu in the premiership, President Tsao would amount to about as much in the government as a cancelled postage stamp. Therefore the President nominated Sun Pao-chi his own choice for the Premiership, but Parliament refused to ratify the nomination. So there it stands, or did up to a few days ago when the Presidential clique ousted the parliamentary guards and Speaker Wu fled to Tientsin where he has been resting in a Japanese hospital. Parliament is now guarded by the Peking Police who look to the President instead of the parliamentary guards which were paid by the parliament. The man who controls the parliamentary guards in these hectic days of Chinese democracy has a lot to say about legislation, the reason being that parliament recognises but two influences—money and force.

Dr. W. W. Yen, although he has never startled the world by any act of political courage, should make a good Premier because he has through experience acquired a broader viewpoint than has been the good fortune of most Chinese politicians. Recently he has been chairman of the special committee which has been investigating the financial situation. The information which he has acquired in this connection should be of value for Peking's troubles are practically all bound up in the word F-I-N-A-N-C-E—domestic and foreign.

But whether it is Yen or somebody else there is need for speed in the organisation of the Tsao Kun Government, the chief reason being that political news from the opposing or Canton camp indicate a possibility of coming unity in the anti-Chihli group. Dr. Sun Yat-sen, who always talks loudest when his political fortunes are lowest, broadcasted an interview day before yesterday to the effect that the Canton crowd is trying to bring about a reconciliation between Sun and his immediate enemy, General Chen Chiung-ming and that another move is on foot looking to unity between Sun and Chang Tso-lin, the Manchurian baron and General Lu of Chekiang. The fact that the opposition to Chihli has been divided has all been to the good of Chihli, but now that there may be some chance of combination on the Canton side of the fence, Gen. Wu Pei-fu and his Chihli party had better show some action—otherwise the millions spent in putting Tsao in the Presidency will have been wasted.

A Local Precedent

WITH the alleged murder of a Russian in Chinese territory off North Honan Road Extension, Shanghai is likely to have brought home to it the very points which we raised in connection with the decision of the Ministry of Justice that where a crime merited such punishment, the capital sentenced could be passed and executed on unrecognised foreigners.

Much of the argument which we levelled against the original decision, which appeared only to apply to Russians in Harbin, was dissipated by the subsequent explanation of the Ministry in question, that it applied to all foreigners not now enjoying the privilege of extraterritoriality.

The essential disderata in the present case are that the men charged with the murder and at present under arrest shall be brought to trial as speedily as possible; that there shall not be the delays so often to be noted in Chinese judicial procedure; that they shall, when on trial be adequately represented, and that, in accordance with the original announcement of the Peking Government when suspending Russian extraterritoriality, they shall be tried under their own law.

If these points are observed and the men charged given a fair and impartial trial, foreign interests in China will be able to demand little more. Further, the Chinese will have done something worth while towards establishing their claim for the surrender of extraterritorial rights. Should the authorities fail in this respect, they need have no doubt but that they will receive the fullest possible publicity, a publicity which will do no particular good to the cause they argued so fervently at the Washington Conference.

We do not wish to comment on the merits of the case before it comes to trial, and in this respect we are extending to the Chinese Court exactly the same treatment as we have to observe with regard to our own tribunals, nor do we wish what we have written above to be taken as in any way endeavoring to teach the Chinese their business. But it is only fair to warn them—they are anxious to bring us all within their jurisdiction—that as much capital will be made out of their failure—should they fail—to grant these prisoners a speedy and impartial trial, as they will ever be able to make out of a proper and adequate administration of justice.

The Situation At Canton

WHATEVER doubts have been created by the recent telegrams relative to a reported change of the American attitude anent the demands of Dr. Sun Yat-sen on the Customs service, must have been set at rest yesterday by the publication in these columns of an interview with Dr. Schurman. The American Minister has stated that he is in receipt of a cable from the Secretary of State informing him that the attitude of Washington had not changed in the least. We welcome this statement as setting at rest any fears that by an American modification of the strong policy adopted in the first instance by the representatives of the Powers in Peking foreign solidarity on the point had been at all impaired.

Sir Francis Aglen's statement that there is no customs surplus in Canton for the impecunious Dr. Sun to seize is entirely beside the point. It happens to be fortunate that such is the case and that if Dr. Sun forces the matter to an issue, and even carries his point, which is unlikely in the extreme, he will gain but a Pyrrhic victory.

That, however, is not a consideration which counts for much in the face of the principle involved. Money has been loaned to China on the security offered by the Maritime Customs, and while it is true that Dr. Sun only threatens to seize the surplus left after Canton has provided its share of the revenue devoted to the service of the various loans, the customs revenue as a whole was pledged and the lenders of money to China are justified in insisting that the security given them shall be preserved intact.

Incidentally, Dr. Sun seems to have been obtaining quite a substantial amount of that recognition which in other circumstances has been denied him. He has conferred with Dr. Schurman, as also has Dr. C. C. Wu, the Canton Government appears to have been in direct receipt of communications from the Consular Body in that port, and in any event Dr. Sun has the conception of knowing that while he could obtain nothing in the nature of recognition, so long as he strictly kept to matters involving purely Chinese interests, the first sign of a change in his tactics has brought about the directest possible negotiation. And if this is not formal recognition of Dr. Sun and his government, it is at least, an instance of how driect action can be obtained, eliminating the intermediation of the Peking Government.

More Truth Than Poetry

BY S. E. KISER

You told me once that I'd forget—
Ah, then you still were young and sweet,
And I remember clearly yet
The jolly place in which we met,
To make confessions and to eat:

You called me silly, you were right,
Although your words seemed harsh to me;
Your reasoning was proper—quite—
In that long-past November night
When you said "What must be will be!"

I thought my heart would break, but you
Were older, wiser, then than I;
You knew much better than I knew
When you assured me I'd pull through,
For, as you see, I didn't die.

I've often wondered just how long,
If you and I had run away,
My love would have continued strong
And kept me blinded to the wrong,
A happy stranger to dismay.

You told me sadly I'd forget—
At least you seemed a little sad
And I remember clearly yet
How, being suddenly upset,
My appetite went to the bad.

I would have blundered, more or less,
You knew much better than I knew,
And, while I'm at it, I'll confess
That oft I wish I could possess
The money that I spent on you.

Our Literary Column

EXCERPTS FROM GREAT THINKERS

By Mathy

FROM HOUR TO HOUR

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, moves on. It is here; it is gone. The hour that yesterday was to be born is today among our memories. The hours are days, the days are years, the years become a lifetime, and we sail an unknown sea to that Eternity which is our home.

Yet who would leave the hours and days if he could stay with them? Who would give the glory of a day for all the unknown years, the glory of this world for all the world to come may hold? Thrilling and wonderful is the life of a day.

We wake up with the Dawn and see the marvellous unfolding of the glory of the Earth. We feel the glow of the morning and the solemn beauty of the quiet fields. We stand as if we heard the voice of Nature talking, as if we heard the heart of Matter beating. Men talk of miracles as if they were dead, but what a miracle that we wake up each morning as part of the Dawn! The garden is afire with gold, the lark is at the gate of Heaven, the trees are yearning for the sun, and in the hills is the still small voice that speaks to every man. Solemn and stirring are the splendors of the Dawn.

And then we reach high Noon—the hour of the heat and burden of the day. The great wheels are going round. Engines are racing over land and sea, and men are riding on them in the clouds. A man speaking in a room in London is heard in Paris; an orchestra playing in America is heard in Europe; a man clicks out the news of the world across the Earth. The energies of men are everywhere, boring through the Alps, diving into the sea, harnessing invisible powers to drive the world's machines, hewing coal from the depths of the earth, pouring light and water into our house, keeping plague out of our cities, making books and music and pictures and papers which tell us every morning what a sad world, what a mad world, what a glad world this is. Wonderful it is to see the drama of the life of men at Noon.

Now comes still Evening on. It is the quiet hour. We go home in the setting sun and watch the glory of the fading day. The red poppies are shutting their leaves; the daisies close their eyes; the rabbits are about. The things we have heard and seen and talked of, the books and pictures that have come our way, the places we have been to—how they crowd our mind! We sit by the fire and think of lovely things. We remember the friends we shall not see again. We sit and dream and dream. Gracious and sweet is the Evening time.

And now comes Night, night with its mysteries, its silences, its stars, its storms; "night with her train of stars, and her great gift of sleep." We look up at the Moon, the dead child of Earth, and stand there wondering. What does it mean, this world of ours, this life of ours? Where have we come from? Where are we going? Have we lived before? Shall we live again? Through our minds the wondering questions run, at times too great for words, at times too deep for tears. We can only trust in Him whose word we have that while the Earth remaineth seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, shall not cease. Night falls, but the stars look down, and all is well. He who has brought us thus far will not fail us now; we shall know in His good time. Through another night our lives are in His keeping, and He will bring us to another Dawn.

WHY ENDURE PILES?

Thousands of people endure untold misery from painful and weakening piles, perhaps thinking an operation is their only chance of cure. Yet thousands have been cured—and without operation either. They used Zam-Buk the unique healing balm that reduces inflammation, stops bleeding, ends the agony. Purely herbal—wonderfully soothing.

"For seven years," writes W. C. Gibson, 26, Third Street, Pudupet, Madras, "I suffered from bleeding piles, accompanied by acute pain and inflammation. The loss of blood was so great that I became very weak and was advised to go into hospital. Although I tried many remedies, I could find no lasting relief. A friend strongly recommended Zam-Buk as the one safe sure remedy. I, therefore, gave Zam-Buk a thorough trial. From the very first application Zam-Buk proved most beneficial. The bleeding ceased; and pain and inflammation were completely stopped by this marvellous balm. I cannot express too highly my admiration of the wonderful healing and curative properties of Zam-Buk."

FOR YOUR OWN SAFETY use nothing but this wonderful herbal Zam-Buk for your piles or other troubles. Don't experiment with useless salves, ointments or mere "dressings" composed of repulsive animal fats and crude mineral drugs. ZAM-BUK is obtainable of chemists and medicine dealers.

How Government Improves

Growth in human government has two stages. At first it is toward unification, and secondly toward responsibility.

The first trend is toward unity, because that means efficiency and stability. It is for this reason that the earlier forms of government were autocratic. The rule of an absolute monarchy is the most efficient of all rules. One man can get things done better than any group of men.

But efficiency is not the whole desire of man. We want justice and equal opportunity and the preservation of the rights of the individual. Therefore, the second step is to make this unified government responsible. The history of Europe shows a universal movement, as mankind emerged from the darkness of medievalism, to abolish the small lords and dukes and barons and to concentrate power in the hands of one monarch. To do this was the work of such empire builders as Bismarck, who united Germany, and Richelieu, who made the King of France supreme over the quarreling nobles. Thus was secured a firm and strong rule. The first need of society is order.

But having secured this order it became evident that this heavenly treasure was in earthen vessels, that kings were human, and that no son of man is fit to be entrusted with absolute power. The ideal of the absolute monarchy is excellent; the fatal flaw is that we cannot get human beings fit to be absolute monarchs.

Then came the French Revolution, the American Rebellion, the growth of democracy in Great Britain, and the events of 1848 in Europe; the underlying cause of all which was the impulse to join responsibility to power. Almost every Government has become responsible within the last century, some more, some less.

Now the real government of the world is by money, which controls the conditions of life, and not by political officials who merely punish criminals and raise taxes.

And in this real government the same process is going on that went on in the outward and visible governments. First, came concentration, such as corporations, trusts and the like, in order to get efficiency and stability. Universal competition was found entirely to wasteful and confused for the great tasks of the modern industrial era.

And now comes the second problem which is at present before the world—to wit, to make this money monarchy responsible.

In other words, the most tremendous work which confronts modern civilisation is to apply the principles of democracy to the government by wealth.

We need the great wealth gatherers, for they are usually men of extraordinary ability and leadership, and without them the world would be infinitely poor. We need them in our struggles against nature, poverty and waste, just as the early tribes needed the kings to lead them forth in their wars against their enemies.

It would not profit us to get rid of great business kings, but we do need to eliminate their irresponsibility, to apply to the absolute monarchies of money that same sort of check which constitutional government applies to the absolute monarchies of political rulers.

The Secret Of New York's Harbor

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS

All things considered. New York's harbor is the greatest and finest in the world. It is an immense fortune in itself. That it should become the metropolitan port of this planet was inevitable from the time of its creation. It is the product of a great many geographical and geological circumstances working together.

Millions of years ago a first step was taken when, at the close of the Cretaceous period, a vast uplift of the earth's crust occurred in the eastern part of what is now the United States.

As a consequence, the Hudson River, spurred on by the uplift of its drainage area, cut its way through the Highlands and made a deep channel out to sea. A large part of that channel is now covered by the Atlantic. When the coast sank the great river channel for a hundred miles beyond Sandy Hook was submerged beneath the ocean, where it can yet be traced as a profound submarine trench. Thus did nature far in the geological past plan a sea way to New York.

In time, as the geographical features of the harbor settled into their present shape, "the moon took up the wondrous tale" in a more practical way than that suggested in Addison's hymn, and with her tides began to scour out and keep open the channels from the sea to the broad land-locked and hill-guarded haven within the wonderful gateway of the Narrows.

But the tidal phenomena of New York Bay are as unconventional and as grandiose as is New York City itself. It is not the height of the tides that distinguishes them, but the way in which a surprising unity and simplicity of effect is wrought out by the combination of apparently contradictory and complicated elements.

This subject is treated in a masterly way by H. A. Marmer of the Coast and Geodetic Survey in the Geographical Review for July. He pictures the peculiar situation of New York with a sentence:

"Unlike other harbors which generally consist of a tidal bay, or river, New York Harbor comprises a system of five tidal highways that connect with the sea by means of two inlets many miles apart."

Mr. Marmer shows that some old ideas about the tides in New York harbor are incorrect, but his analysis and explanations cannot be repeated, or even summarized here, though some of the facts be briefly stated. It is probably owing to the combination of the effects of different "tidal highways" that this almost matchless harbor is open to the heaviest ships at all seasons.

At the same time New York has a great advantage over such ports as London, Hamburg, Bremen, and many other of the best known, in that the range of the tides here is not so great that the largest vessels may be brought direct to the wharves so that it is not necessary always to use closed docks, opened to traffic only at high tide, or to have a sub-port, or construct expensive wharves of special character.

Tidal waters enter New York harbor through a southern and an eastern gateway, the latter being the Narrows, and the second Throgs Neck, at the mouth of the strait called "East River." The ocean water that reaches New York from the east has to traverse the entire length of Long Island Sound. The times of high and low water at Throgs Neck are about an hour and three-quarters later than at the Narrows. In East River an interesting situation is suggested by this statement of Mr. Marmer's:

"Past Throgs Neck the Long Island Sound tide enters East River at its eastern end. After fourteen miles southwesterly, the ocean tide that has come through the Narrows passes Governor's Island and enters East River at its western end."

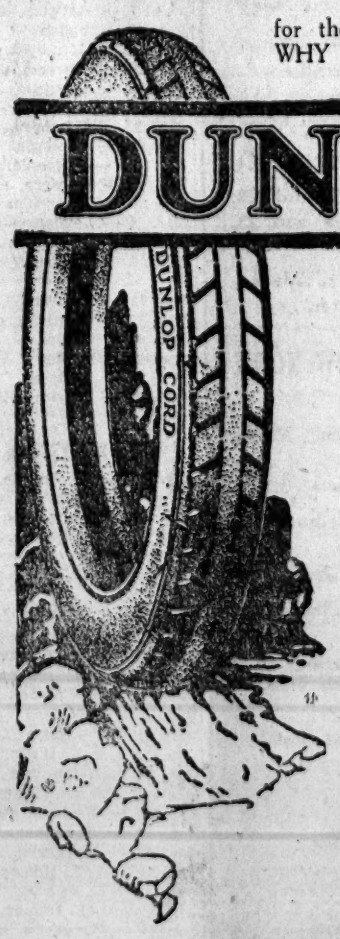
? WHAT IS THE REASON ? for the preponderance of DUNLOP tyres fitted to cars in Shanghai?
WHY do the important Public Departments equip their fleet of Cars exclusively with DUNLOP CORDS?

DUNLOP



QUALITY HIGHEST

BECAUSE the DUNLOP CORD is the longest mileage tyre in the World. BECAUSE the DUNLOP CORD has behind it the longest experience in the tyre industry. BECAUSE it is the best Cord made.

PRICE LOWEST

Not only is Dunlop QUALITY the best, but DUNLOP PRICES are appreciably lower than any other make. Let us demonstrate this to you.

The new DUNLOP CORD FOR MOTOR CYCLES supplied from stock. Remember—it is a CORD, also it costs less than any other make.
